

San Diego City Attorney CASEY GWINN

MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 23, 2001

CONTACT: Maria Velasquez, Press Secretary: 619-235-5725

"ONE STOP SHOP" DOMESTIC VIOLENCE JUSTICE CENTER PARTNERSHIP CAMPAIGN TO CREATE THE MOST COMPREHENSIVE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CENTER IN THE COUNTRY

WHAT: San Diego City Attorney Casey Gwinn and San Diego Police Chief David Bejarano are proposing a revolutionary plan to create the Domestic Violence Justice Center in San Diego--a centralized, multi-disciplinary team to handle domestic violence cases under one roof. The "One Stop Shop" proposal will bring together detectives, prosecutors, advocates, forensic medical personnel, social workers, probation officers and others in one location to meet the needs of victims and their children. The project will be presented by City Attorney Gwinn and Assistant Police Chief Rulette Armstead at the request of Councilmember Toni Atkins, Chair of the Public Safety and Neighborhood Services Committee.

WHEN: Wednesday, October 24, 2:00 p.m.

WHERE: San Diego City Council Committee Chambers, 12th floor
202 C Street, Downtown San Diego
